Leadership Unlimited Class of 2015 had the chance to visit with Grant Milliron from Milliron Industries. Grant started the business with only $1,000 and built it into what we know today!

It was a great day for a ribbon cutting at O’Charley’s! They underwent a complete makeover! New inside, new outside, still a delicious meal - be sure to stop out soon!

Our June Business Boot Camp with Tracy Graziani/Graziani Multimedia & Donna Payne/The Web Coach featured how to create word of mouth marketing.

The Chamber first Speed Networking event was held at Hawkins Corner. We plan to organize another one soon—watch for it on the Chamber event calendar!

It was a great turn-out for Chamber Coffee hosted at the beautiful Wishmaker House Bed and Breakfast in Bellville. They also offer a wine bar and fantastic menu selections.

Leadership Unlimited Reflections
By: Jodie A. Perry, IOM
@RichlandAreaCh

Last September I embarked on a journey called “Leadership Unlimited” with 27 other local professionals. I was new to town, new to my job and trying to figure out my place in this community. I have done 3 other community leadership programs so I knew that participating in LU was going to be a great way to network and learn. Well, it was certainly that, but it was also much more. Perhaps if we were creating Leadership Unlimited today (it’s been around since 1982!) we would name it something different to try to capture all the many experiences you receive.

You might call it “Richland County...Up Close & Personal.” After all, you spend ten months exploring many nooks and crannies of this County that you never knew existed. Each year tackles different themes, but certainly there are some things that pop up every year. As a relative ‘newbie’ to the community, I’m sure you won’t be surprised to know that much of what we covered was new to me. However, perhaps it might surprise you to know that some of the ‘locals’ in the class saw many things they had never seen before either. From looking at the impact of drugs & addiction on our community to local economic development efforts, or taking in the scope of the arts scene to tackling the perception of the community, we covered many topics throughout the last ten months.

You could also easily call it, “Starting as Strangers, Leaving as Friends.” I remember pulling up to the first social event we had last September for a couple hours on a cool evening after work. I think at that point I had maybe met only one or two of the people in the class. The time flew by as I met my new classmates. Next came the overnight retreat at Hidden Hollow (on a beautiful fall weekend). Would we be sick of each other after two days together? Nope, we meshed really well and some bonding started to take place pretty quickly while checking out the stars or standing around the fire. I looked forward to my LU days each month and the chance to see these folks who have become friends.

Another descriptive title might be, “An Invitation to Get Involved in YOUR Community.” We have seen a lot of things throughout this year and have been presented with a number of ways we might be able to get involved in the community. One classmate, Tim Hilterman, was so moved by our look at the impact of drugs and addiction on the community that he has started the Spherion Mid Ohio 13er Race, and it is being supported by many of our classmates in volunteer roles. Others have become more aware of different organizations and businesses in our area and have worked to support them in generous ways. None of us will leave this program without a pretty clear idea of the ways that we can make a difference in our community.

Overall, the experience has been unique and challenging, fun and eye-opening and is certainly something I will prize for many years to come. Come to think of it, perhaps Leadership Unlimited is a pretty apt name in the end.

Communication Is Key to Genuine Employee Engagement

By Chad Brooks, Business News Daily
Senior Writer June 11, 2015

If you want your employees to feel good about your business and the direction it’s headed, you’ve got to keep them informed, new research finds.

Effective communication with employees results in workers who both rate their employers' reputations favorably and feel their company's best years are still to come, new Harris Poll finds. Overall, more than three-quarters of employees who say their company does a good job of communicating with them also say their company’s reputation is good and that they believe their employers' best years are still ahead.

Employers who want their employees to feel good about the business should focus their communication on several specific areas. The study revealed that discussing company goals, how employees are contributing to the company's success and how the company is performing are all critical.

Specifically, more than 70 percent of employees have a favorable view of their company and think the best years are still to come when employers effectively communicate company goals and objectives, company performance, and how each worker is personally contributing to the business’s success.

"The reputational impact of effective internal communications is clear," Carol Gstalter, senior vice president of reputation management and public relations practice for Harris Poll, said in a statement.

The study's authors said it's up to managers to boost their communication efforts. Gstalter said employees often look first to their supervisors to obtain the information they need to do their jobs and that effective managers share company information in ways that resonate with their staffs. This type of communication goes a long way toward motivating employees to achieve company goals, according to Gstalter.

Despite the vital role managers play, only one-third said they strongly agree they are a primary communicator to employees, and less than half said they strongly agree they are well trained and prepared to communicate news and information to employees.

Given the impact of employee communication on company reputation, ensuring managers are equipped with the skills needed to effectively communicate is an essential ingredient in today’s workplace, Gstalter said.

The study was based on surveys of 2,276 U.S. adults, of whom 1,117 were employed or self-employed.

YEA! is Coming to Richland County

The Chamber Foundation and Chamber of Commerce are bringing the Young Entrepreneurs Academy to our area. YEA! teaches students how to start and run their own REAL businesses.

A bit of background... YEA! was developed at the University of Rochester in 2004 with the support of a grant from the Kauffman Foundation. The Chamber Foundation is excited to be introducing YEA! to the Richland County Community!

YEA! guides high school students through the process of starting and running a legitimate business or social movement over the course of a full academic year. YEA! has graduated almost 2300 students over the past 11 years, who have started almost 1700 businesses and social movements! Kids start as students, and graduate as CEOs!

Over the course of the program students:
- Brainstorm business ideas
- Write a business plan
- Interact with business professionals
- Pitch their business plan to potential “investors” (think Shark Tank meets the Apprentice meets American Idol)
- Obtain funding
- Legally register their businesses
- Participate in a Trade Show
- Actually launch their own businesses or social movements

How business professionals can get involved...
Through their interactions with business professionals during the year, YEA! students gain some of the most important knowledge and experience they need to succeed. Local professionals volunteer their time and expertise as guest speakers, mentors, investors, graphic designers, field trip hosts, business plan reviewers, and much more. The time YEA! students spend with adults who encourage their futures is invaluable, and participants often report getting even more out of their participation than they put in to it!

For more information, call Bill Sharp at 419.522.3211 or email mrachamberfoundation@gmail.com

YEA! offers students the chance to:
- Develop the skills necessary to launch their own business or social movement (hands-on entrepreneurial experience!)
- Learn about real businesses - why they succeed or fail.
- Hear from local entrepreneurs.
- Launch their own business or social movement!
- Become more confident in their ideas and their abilities.

Are you ready to start saving on your BWC premium?

CareWorksComp™
A York Risk Services Company

A strong partnership focused on lowering your workers’ compensation costs.

www.careworkscomp.com/groupratingapplication/richland
MAXIMIZE YOUR SAVINGS WITH THE RICHLAND AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE’S WORKERS’ COMPENSATION PROGRAM.

The Richland Area Chamber of Commerce partners with CareWorksComp because we help employers achieve the best workers’ compensation discounts available. CareWorksComp analyzes each employer’s unique claim, payroll and premium history to find the best BWC premium savings option.

CareWorksComp is Ohio’s leading workers’ compensation Third Party Administrator (TPA), offering comprehensive workers’ compensation analysis that maximizes our customers’ potential BWC savings. We help employers determine the best rating or discount program available, whether that’s group rating, BWC deductible, 100% EM cap or any other available BWC program that can help lower your costs.

GROUP RATING
Nearly 100,000 Ohio employers are currently participating in group rating. CareWorksComp’s group rating program is the only group rating program endorsed by Richland Chamber. The majority of CareWorksComp’s clients save the maximum on their current premium! On average, for every dollar spent on fees, CareWorksComp’s clients saved $11.00 in premium dollars, a 1000% return on investment.

DESTINATION EXCELLENCE
Destination Excellence opens up some current programs to employers that were previously not eligible for a discount, or increases the discount amount for employers already participating. Several of the programs are considered compatible with each other and would allow employers to “stack” multiple discounts. The programs include: Industry Safety, Safety Council, Drug-Free Safety, Transitional Work Grant and Performance Bonus, Go Green Discount, Lapse Free Discount, One Claim Program and 100% EM Cap.

DEDUCTIBLE PROGRAM
This program offers an upfront discount on employer premium rates in exchange for accepting the financial obligation — up to the deductible amount chosen ranging from $500 to $200,000 per claim — on any new claim incurred during the policy year enrolled. The program is set up to create incentives to promote workplace safety and proactive claims management.

100% EXPERIENCE MODIFIER (EM) CAP
The 100% EM Cap program limits the change to an employer’s experience modification factor (EM) to no more than two times the prior year’s EM. This program is available to both penalty and credit-rated employers. The previous year’s EM could be an individual EM or group EM if the employer was participating in a group-rating plan that year.

GROUP RETROSPECTIVE RATING
Employers participating in CareWorksComp group retrospective rating programs are projected to receive premium rebates based on the results of their workplace safety and cost control efforts.

For a free, no obligation analysis of your potential premium savings, complete the attached Temporary Authorization to Review Information (AC-3) form and fax it to CareWorksComp toll-free, at 1-888-837-3288. Address

Note: For this to be a valid letter, the self-insured department employers, or the employer service department for all other employers, must stamp it. Being temporary in nature, BWC will not record via computer or retain this authorization. Representative must possess a copy when requesting service relative to the authority granted therein.

This is to certify that CareWorksComp (ID NO. 150-80) and the Buckeye WC Alliance/Richland Area Chamber of Commerce (41064, 2016/2017, Code 1/112) including its agents or representatives identified to you by them, has been retained to review and perform studies on certain workers' compensation matters on our behalf.

This limited letter of authority provides access to the following types of information relating to our account:
1. Risk files;
2. Claim files;
3. Merit-rated or non-merit rated experiences;
4. Other associated data.

This authorization does NOT include the authority to:
1. Review protest letters;
2. File protest letters;
3. File form Application for Handicap Reimbursement (CHP-4);
4. Notice of Appeal (I-12) or Application for Permanent Partial Reconsideration (IC-68);
5. File self-insurance applications;
6. Represent the employer at hearings;
7. Pursue other similar actions on behalf of the employer.

I understand that this authorization is limited and temporary in nature and will expire on January 31, 2016 or automatically nine months from the date received by the employer services or self-insured departments, whichever is appropriate. In either case, length of authorization will not exceed nine months.

Completion of the temporary authorization provides a third-party administrator (TPA) limited authority to view an employer's payroll and loss experience. By signing the AC-3, the employer grants permission to the BWC to release information to the employer's authorized representative(s). The form allows a TPA to view an employer's information regarding payroll, claims and experience modification.

Attention group rating prospects
• Employers may complete the AC-3 for as many TPAs or group-rating sponsors they feel are necessary to obtain quotes for a group-rating program.
• Group sponsors must notify all current group members if they will not accept them for the next group-rating year. The deadline for this notification is prior to the first Monday in February for private employers and prior to the second Friday in August for public employers.
• All potential group-rating prospects must have:
  Active BWC coverage status as of the application deadline;
  Active coverage from the application deadline through the group rating year;
  No outstanding balances;
  Operations similar in nature to the other members of their group.
• Any changes to a group member's policy will affect the group policy. Changes can result in either debits or credits to each of the members.

Note: For complete information on rules for group rating, see Rules 4123-17-51 through 4123-17-68 of the Ohio Administrative Code or your TPA. All group-rating applicants are subject to review by the BWC employer programs unit.
